

Exploring Creation with Health and Nutrition

By: Apologia

Hello and welcome to Health and Nutrition. In this course, students will study health and nutrition. Your student will be expected to read the textbook, take notes, and answer all questions. Students will need to come to class with their books, notebooks, and pencils. There are projects in the notebook that will need to be completed.

Text needed: Exploring Creation with Health and Nutrition, by Apologia. Book and notebook set: $90

Some of the modules I will have you go over with your child.

- Module 4 discusses gender roles, friends, social skills, boundaries with others.
- Module 14 speaks of loss, rejection, joy in spiritual life.
- Module 15 discusses sexual reproduction.

This curriculum issues tests and has study guides. I WILL NOT grade any homework or tests. I leave this up to the parents. Also note, this is a half credit course.
